

HOUSE RESOLUTION 339
By Hood

A RESOLUTION to recognize Mr. Henry Jones on the occasion of his retirement.

WHEREAS, it is appropriate that the members of this legislative body should honor those citizens who in their years of work have performed with uncommon devotion and enthusiasm; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Henry Jones is one such person who has served with probity for nineteen years with the Rutherford County School System; a dedicated and diligent employee, Mr. Jones served with acumen for the past fifteen years as the head custodian of the Eagleville School; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Jones is an active and important part of his community and is looking forward to retirement; he says retirement will afford him more time to help other people, especially those who cannot help themselves; he also plans to spend more time working on his farm in Triune where he raises cattle; and

WHEREAS, a native of Williamson County, Mr. Jones attended the Old Franklin Training School; and

WHEREAS, he exemplifies the spirit and allegiance to family and community that are characteristic of a true Tennessean; and

WHEREAS, Henry Jones is most appreciative of the love and companionship he shares with his wife, Dora, with whom he looks forward to traveling and spending more time as they visit friends and loved ones; the Joneses are the devoted parents of five grown children, who have all become successful citizens in his or her own field of endeavor; and

WHEREAS, throughout his estimable career, Henry Jones has demonstrated a remarkable ability to motivate others to reach their potential, winning the unbridled respect and admiration of his peers and superiors alike; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED SECOND GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, That we extend to Mr. Henry Jones our heartfelt wishes for a happy and fulfilling retirement and every continued success in his future endeavors.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.
